SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1919.

NO. 3

SOUTH CITY GARAGE AND TWO SALOONS ROBBED

Thieves Force Entrance Thursday Night and Carry Off Cash, Whisky and Cigars; No Clew to Their Identity

Burglars entered the South City Garage, Poodle Dog Saloon and Galli Bros.' Saloon sometime between midnight Thursday and 5 o'clock Friday, securing $35 in cash, several thousand cigars and two quart bottles of whisky.

The cash register of the South City Garage was smashed open and $25 in cash taken from it. Nothing else is missing at this place.

Entrance to the Poodle Dog Saloon was made by the thieves through a back window after crossing the roof of Viette & Thatcher's cigar store, immediately adjoining the saloon, which is owned by A. Baradat. The cash register, which fortunately contained only $5, was rifled, two boxes of cigars and two quarts of Canadian Club whisky being also appropriated.

The burglars next visited Galli Bros.' saloon on Grand avenue, just above the bank. Admission was gained by jimmying open a rear window. According to the owners of the saloon, the burglars drank heavily of the opened whisky at this place and carried away fifteen hundred cigars, along with $12 in cash which was in the register and one of the drawers in the back bar.

The robberies have been reported to the Sheriff's office and San Francisco police department, but up to the present time no clew to the identity of the burglars has been secured.

JOHNNY MAGER AND VERA MULCAHY WED

CEREMONY PERFORMED QUIETLY AT BURBANK WITH FEW RELATIVES PRESENT.

Johnny Mager, inspector for the Cattle Loan Company here, and Miss Vera Mulcahy slipped quietly away to St. Martin's Church in Burbank Wednesday morning of last week, and pledged their plighted word in matrimony, bidding only a few of their closest relatives to the nuptials.

The news, though belated, is none the less joyously received by those who know the young couple, who are now due for a multitude of congratulations.

Mager is well known in South San Francisco, and although his work with the Cattle Loan Company keeps him traveling a great deal, his return trips are sufficiently frequent to keep his friendships alive.

The winsome bride, who is a teacher in the South San Francisco grammar school, is a girl of rare charm and unusual attractiveness.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left immediately for a brief honeymoon trip to Los Angeles.

They are making their home in San Francisco.

BOARD APPOINTS NEW PRINCIPAL

A. E. Adams has been appointed by the South San Francisco School Board to succeed the late George Britton as principal of the local schools.

Adams was formerly connected with the Redwood schools and comes to his new position with high endorsements.

PACIFIC COAST STEEL HELPS FINANCE CLUB

STEEL WORKERS' CLUB NOW ON SOUND FINANCIAL BASIS; MILL MANAGEMENT ENDORSES ORGANIZATION.

The Pacific Coast Steel Company has given its endorsement to the Steel Workers' Club and made a substantial financial cash contribution to its maintenance.

Following several conferences between officials of the company and directors of the club, in which the aims and purposes of the organization were laid before the mill management, the company declared itself heartily in accord with the movement to broaden the social life of its employees and their families.

According to the directors of the club, the process of financing it has progressed satisfactorily and the organization is now on a sound financial basis.

New plans for entertainment will be entered into actively. Ladies' night each Friday evening will continue to be a feature of the club's social program.

MRS. CAROLINE COFFINBERRY AND DAUGHTER BOTH ILL

Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry has contracted influenza, and Dr. Dolley, who is in attendance, is carefully watching developments of the disease. Her little daughter is suffering with a slight attack of scarlet fever.

GRACE MARTIN RECOVERS.

Miss Grace Martin has recovered from an attack of influenza which kept her confined to her home for nearly two weeks. Miss Martin contemplates taking a recuperative trip, upon which she will probably be accompanied by Mrs. David G. Martin, her sister-in-law.

PAINFULLY CUT IN AUTO CRASH

WOMAN INJURED WHEN MACHINES OF JERRY HORKEY AND L. P. CLAYBURG COLLIDE.

Mrs. L. P. Clayburg of 1528 Gerald avenue, San Francisco, was painfully cut about the face when an automobile driven by her husband collided with Jerry Horkey's machine at the intersection of Grand and Magnolia avenues last Monday night.

Both cars are reported to have been traveling at a high rate of speed, and in attempting to swerve to avoid the collision the Hudson sedan driven by Clayburg leaped the sidewalk and ran into a vacant lot.

Flying glass from the wind shield of the badly demolished car was the cause of several painful cuts about the head and face of Mrs. Clayburg, who went to the South San Francisco Hospital for treatment.

There was no occupant other than Horkey in his car and he and Clayburg escaped injury.

Clayburg is employed by J. G. Johnson, a wholesale meat packer of San Francisco. It was stated by Johnson's San Francisco office that the report that Johnson was driving the car is erroneous. Johnson is reported to be confined to his peninsula home for the past ten days with rheumatism.

JOHN J. DALY HAS LATE LIFE ROMANCE

FATHER OF DALY CITY, AGED 78, ELOPES WITH DAUGHTER OF PREDECESSOR IN BUSINESS.

John Donald Daly, 78 years old, pioneer settler in the north end of San Mateo county, after whom Daly City was named, "eloped" last week with Miss Florence A. Smart, a music teacher of 1884 San Jose avenue, San Francisco. In asking "Cupid" Munson of the San Francisco marriage license bureau to "say nothing about it," Daly gave his age as 60 years and Miss Smart's as 40. The bridegroom is one of the chief stockholders of the Dairy Delivery Company and is known as the "Mission Milk King."

The marriage of Daly created something of a sensation, particularly among his married sons and daughters, as the "elopement" was carried out with the utmost secrecy. Not even the aged milk dealer's closest friends had the slightest intimation of his intentions.

Daly, who is reputed to be worth a quarter of a million dollars, has four grown sons and daughters. They are: Mrs. Minnie Carson, wife of Edward Carson, Southern Pacific baggage agent; Irving Daly, clerk for the Dairy Delivery Company; Mrs. Samuel Tilton, wife of a wealthy Gilroy stockman, and Mrs. Ida Levenseller, wife of Caleb Levenseller, produce commission merchant of Alameda.

Miss Smart, the bride, is the daughter of George Smart, who in the pioneer days of San Francisco was the predecessor of Daly in the milk business of San Francisco. Her brother, the late George Smart, at one time attended St. Matthew's School.

The "newlyweds" will make their home at 900 Guerrero street, where Daly has maintained a residence for some years.

BOY OVERTURNS OIL STOVE; STARTS FIRE

McDONALD'S GROCERY STORE SCENE OF BLAZE; LIGHTED MATCH IGNITES OIL ON SWIFT AVENUE.

Flames caused by the overturning of an oil stove threatened to destroy the contents of McDonald's grocery store on Grand avenue Friday morning. The local fire department, after a quick response to the alarm, extinguished the blaze with chemicals.

According to Mrs. McDonald, wife of the proprietor, the stove was overturned when several boys who were making purchases began playing around the stove, and one of them knocked over the stove in his romping.

The flames from the burning oil spread rapidly along the side of the counter, show cases and a pile of boxed goods which was standing on the floor, causing considerable damage to the contents. The glass of the show cases was broken and the contents destroyed by fire, smoke and chemicals.

OIL BURNS IN ROAD.

An oil pipe, part of the oil supply line of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, broke on Wednesday, permitting a stream of oil to run along the side of Swift avenue, which then was ignited by some one throwing a lighted match into it.

When the local fire apparatus reached the scene the blazing oil was making rapid headway toward the Moran Company packing plant, but was fortunately extinguished before it had gained sufficient headway to seriously menace the safety of the new plant.

Fire Chief Ben H. Truax believes the blaze was accidental, possibly being caused by some occupant of an automobile throwing a lighted match into the roadway and igniting the oil.

FRIENDS INVADE HOME OF W. J. MARTIN

A chance remark made by W. J. Martin about his age caused his home to be invaded by a number of the city's prominent citizens on Wednesday evening. They came singly, hurriedly shook his hand and left. They came in twos and stayed a while. But each arrival beamed and congratulated him. It was "Bill" Martin's sixty-second birthday, and intimate friends who had knowledge of it gave him a regular old-fashioned surprise party.

Refreshments were plentiful, and those who happened to remember the date or chanced to hear of the planned surprise are hoping he will have thirty or forty more celebrations of the date of his birth to observe.

LOUIS NIERI INJURES MAN; CLAIMS DID NOT KNOW IT

D. Martinelli, who swore to a warrant for the arrest of Louis Nieri, who failed to stop after hitting him while driving an automobile, declared, after a conference with Nieri, that he will not prosecute.

Nieri was driving in San Francisco when the accident occurred, and claims that he was not aware that he had struck Martinelli, who was attempting to board a street car when the accident happened.

Martinelli was carrying a suit case and Nieri side-swiped it in passing and injured Martinelli's knee.

Nieri was held in $3000 bonds.

The mailed fist seems to have wound up in the dead-letter office.

MASKS MUST BE WORN, SAYS BOARD

RESOLUTION PASSED AT SPECIAL SESSION; ORDER TO BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED BY OFFICERS.

The Board of Trustees at a special session on Monday last passed a resolution ordering the wearing of gauze masks, the order to be effective Saturday. Health and police officials are instructed to rigidly enforce the ruling, which is designed to prevent a wide spreading of the influenza epidemic which has again made its appearance here.

Health Officer Dr. J. C. McGovern, through the co-operation of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society, will arrange for the sale of masks at the booth outside the bank at the corner of Grand and Linden avenues.

110 Cases Reported.

During the week ending January 11 110 cases of influenza were reported by local physicians, but there has been a decided decrease in the number of new cases during the present week. According to the health officers, new cases for the week just ending will show a decrease of 50 per cent.

Drs. Dolley and Doak have succeeded in caring for those stricken with influenza without outside assistance, and both physicians have been working to the breaking point, day and night, keeping up with the calls for medical assistance.

The physicians warn the public against panic, and declare that there will be more or less influenza during the entire winter season. Personal care in hygiene, diet, plenty of sleep in well-aired rooms and avoidance of homes where there are influenza patients are recommended as the most effective means of avoiding the disease.

BANKERS SPONSOR NEW FINANCE BILL

AMENDMENT INTRODUCED BY ASSEMBLYMAN EKSWARD WOULD PERMIT MORE DEPOSITS OF PUBLIC MONEY.

W. H. Coffinberry, president of the Bank of South San Francisco; L. P. Behrens of Redwood City, cashier of the First National Bank and former president of the State Banking Association, and C. S. Crary, cashier of the Bank of Burlingame, are behind the bill introduced in the State Legislature by Assemblyman Frank L. Eksward, providing for an amendment to the State Banking Act permitting State banks to accept more public money for deposit.

This amendment, should it pass, would permit State banks to accept one-half their capital in the funds of any one municipality. For instance, a San Mateo county bank is capitalized for $100,000. Then it could accept $50,000 in funds from San Bruno, $50,000 for Hillsborough, $50,000 from Redwood City, and so on. This amount need not be stable, but can alter as long as the average banking deposit remains the same throughout the banking year. As the law stands now, a State bank can accept half its capital in the funds of only one municipality, as, for instance, the funds of Burlingame.

NATALE BELTRAMO AT FINAL REST

WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN OF SAN BRUNO INTERRED AT ITALIAN CEMETERY.

Natale Beltramo, a resident of San Bruno for thirteen years, passed away on Monday in his fifty-first year, and was interred at the Italian Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, following funeral services at St. Bruno's Church.

The deceased had earned the respect and confidence of the entire city of San Bruno, where he was engaged in the coal and feed business.

Those who knew him best will miss him most. He was a broad-minded, charitable neighbor, a progressive business man and a fond husband and father.

The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Olimpia Beltramo; a son, Frederic, and three daughters, Minnie, Mary and Thereesa, to mourn him. He was a native of Italy.

NORMAN WRIGHT HALL DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Norman Wright Hall, a former well-known resident of San Bruno, died on Tuesday at his home in San Francisco, of which city he was a native.

Funeral services were conducted Friday from the chapel of S. Godeau's undertaking parlors, under the auspices of Mission Parlor, No. 38, N. S. G. W.

The deceased leaves a widow, Mary Gould Hall; a mother, Mrs. E. I. Hall, and a sister, Evelyn Hall.

SAN BRUNO NOTES

Mrs. Haggard, who recently purchased and moved into the C. H. Burr house, is quite ill and under the care of Dr. Simth.

Ed Bergman is recovering from an attack of influenza.

Lomita Park War Savings Society sold $1867.98 in the last drive and secured 1000 pledges.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Tierney of Lomita Park are moving to Oakland.

Mrs. Joe Singer and little son, Welden, will leave Monday for a week's visit with her parents in Petaluma.

Peter Dela Maggiori returned Friday morning from a thirty-day furlough to the naval station at San Pedro. He has re-enlisted for the regular service.

Mrs. McCrey, one of the teachers in Northbrae school, was taken ill last Friday. The school has been closed and will remain so until the epidemic subsides.

Little Jimmie Valentine celebrated his third birthday on Wednesday by a party, to which a number of his little friends were invited. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

On Monday morning last Mrs. Walter Watson of Lomita Park received the news of the death of her brother, Wesley Johnson, of Richmond, Cal.

GOOD ROADS JOHNSON AGAIN HIGHWAY COMMITTEE HEAD

State Senator M. B. Johnson of San Mateo county, widely known throughout the State as "Good Roads Johnson," was reappointed chairman of the roads and highways committee of the Senate when the forty standing committees were named by Lieutenant-Governor Young. Senator Johnson was chairman of the same committee two years ago, and his work in assisting the War Department in the compilation of valuable highway data attracted widespread attention. Johnson was president of the San Mateo County Development Association, which promoted the good roads bond issue in this county, and was a member of the advisory highway committee while the new county roads were being constructed.

MRS. VON BRINKEN FILES DIVORCE SUIT

GERMAN AGENT SERVING SENTENCE IS DEFENDANT IN SECOND COMPLAINT.

Mrs. Milo M. Abercrombie von Brincken filed suit for divorce Thursday in the superior court at San Francisco against Lieutenant Wilhelm E. von Brincken, former resident with his wife of Hillsborough, and military attache of the German consulate in San Francisco, now serving a two-year sentence for conspiring to foment a revolution in India.

Mrs. von Brincken's complaint recites her alleged humiliation by her husband's acts of disloyalty toward the United States as an officer of the German empire.

The couple were married at a brilliant society event in 1915. It was Von Brincken's second marriage, he having formerly taken as his bride Miss Alice Roedel, daughter of the late Philip Roedel, founder of the original San Mateo Bank, now the San Mateo branch of the Bank of Italy. After her father's death, Miss Roedel toured Europe with her mother, and in Germany met and was won by the dashing Lieutenant von Brincken. They lived together several years and there was one child by the marriage. The first Mrs. von Brincken is now living on a ranch near San Jose.

Von Brincken, following his conviction in the German-Hindoo revolutionary plot, boasted that he was the master mind behind the conspiracy in San Francisco.

DONALD J. BERGMAN GOES TO SANTA CLARA COLLEGE

Donald J. Bergman has resigned his position as plant engineer with the Schaw-Batcher Company Ship Works and is now an instructor in the engineering department of Santa Clara College.

UNWARY SWINDLED BY GUM MACHINES

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SWART ORDERS SEIZURE OF BOGUS VENDORS AT DALY CITY; ARREST MAY FOLLOW.

Forecasting a general clean-up of alleged gum-vending machines which, in reality, are swindling boxes for the unwary, City Marshal Henry Toft and Deputy Marshal A. H. Hilton of Daly City have confiscated two slot machines and turned them over to District Attorney Franklin Swart in Redwood City. The machines were taken from the premises of Daly City saloons.

They are supposed to deposit sticks of gum when the player yanks the crank to a lucky number. The gum slots, when the apparatus was opened, were found to contain nothing more than cobwebs, while the money-boxes were found to be crammed with nickels. These nickels occasionally cause brass slugs to be thrown out, which the victim promptly uses to play the machine again, inevitably losing even the slugs.

According to District Attorney Swart, orders have been given the San Mateo county officers to confiscate these machines wherever found. They will be broken up with an ax, he says, and the proceeds taken from them will be given to charity. Swart intimated that the authorities knew the party responsible for the placing of these coin-grabbers and that arrests are to follow.

GOT TOO FAT.
Wife — When we were married you said I'd have nothing to do but sit about and look pretty.

Hubby — Well, the trouble is that from sitting about so much you don't look pretty any longer.

How would it do to set the Kaiser adrift in a dory and guarantee him the freedom of the seas?

MORE MEAT INSPECTED.

Additional tasks performed under war conditions by the meat inspection service of the United States Department of Agriculture are indicated by increases in the number of animals slaughtered under Federal supervision. In October, 1918, the cattle, calves, sheep, goats and swine thus inspected numbered 5,787,202, in comparison with 4,587,544 in October, 1917. The number for the ten months ending October, 1918, was 50,760,507, and for the ten months ending October, 1917, it was 45,936,883.

HE FINALLY ADVERTISED.

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise,
He swore by all the gods that be,
He would not advertise.
At last one day he advertised,
And thereby hangs a tale;
The ad was set in nonpareil
And headed "Sheriff's Sale."

TAXPAYERS' ASS'N REORGANIZATION PLAN

PROPOSAL SUBMITTED TO COMMITTEE ON ECONOMY APPOINTED BY GOV. STEPHENS.

The Taxpayers' Association of California has filed with Gov. Stephens' "Committee on Efficiency and Economy," in the form of a completed plan, its ideas as to a proper reorganization of the State government. Copies of the association's plan, which has been constructed as the result of an extended study of the State's existing organization, have also been supplied to the press; and it is announced that the details in support of the proposals will appear in the forthcoming issue of the Taxpayers' Journal.

Briefly, the association's plan consolidates the existing government (which is said to consist of about 120 agencies involving about 460 "State office" positions—active and ex-officio, salaried and non-salaried) into twelve departments. Of these departments, five are single-headed, while seven are headed by boards, the members of which are the chiefs of twenty-nine subsidiary divisions. In its entirety, the association's plan calls for only fifty-two officials ranking as "State officers." It is said to be the association's contention that the large savings of such a consolidation are to be expected from general operating economy and increased efficiency, rather than from the payroll of State officers.

The association makes the claim that its plan will not eliminate the performance of a single service now rendered by the State. The eliminations will be in the matters of duplication, overlapping, conflicts, etc. The plan is built upon the principle of an individual transfer of each of the hundreds of functions now performed by the State. The transfers are made in accordance with a classification of functions. The reorganization proposed can be effected without constitutional amendment.

BELLONI TELLS OF 91ST AT VERDUN

DESCRIBES HIS EXPERIENCES IN SHELL-SWEPT SECTOR; "STAYED WITH 'EM" TEN DAYS.

Watson (Belgium), Dec. 11, 1918. To South City Fire Department, Hose Company No. 1—Dear Friends: With the essential part of one of the world's greatest conflicts won, it still finds me able to write a few lines to the boys of the unprecedented Hose Company No. 1.

Well, friends, here goes for just a small line of my few months' service of battling the Huns, plus the Kaiser. The above-named city, Watson, is but 200 yards from the French border, so you know where we are located at present.

We first went "over the top" on September 26, 1918, in the Argonne woods a few miles north of Verdun, and we came near breaking the record by "staying with them" for ten days. We were raked by machine guns, aeroplanes, high explosives, gas and everything imaginable, but still we drove them back, so you can do the judging for yourselves who did the fighting. Why, the Old Ninety-first, "the pride of the West."

I have seen many of the ravages wrought by the Huns on some of the famous cities of France and Belgium. The San Francisco earthquake compares nothing to them. The city of Ypres lies a few miles distant from here and it would remind you of a dismantled brickyard, but the Huns' destructive power is now at a finish—except I haven't heard of the Kaiser being executed yet.

When the armistice went into effect the division was ready to go over the top a few miles beyond the city of Audenarde. We were going "over the top" at 10 o'clock on November 11, and at 9:45 we got the news that Germany had accepted Wilson's peace terms, and say, there was some rejoicing among the boys. Now all we want is to get back to the "land of

BE A YANK—HOLD 'EM.

"Hold 'em." That's an American cry. You've heard it on the football field.

Marines at Chateau Thierry heard it and held for civilization. Whittlesey's "Lost Battalion" heard it and stuck.

Yanks in meeting innumerable merciless counter-attacks obeyed and never yielded a foot of French soil.

And now the appeal goes out to twenty million Americans who have bought Liberty Bonds.

To sell those bonds is to weaken the line back of our uncompleted war program.

Selling them nullifies a patriotic act as well as personal advantage. It lowers the market price, shows ingratitude, increases the government's financial burden, enriches unscrupulous traders in Liberty Bonds, weakens your claim to patriotism, endangers the success of the Victory and brands you a quitter.

"Hold 'em" is the government's appeal to you.

As an American you will heed the cry.

With the exception of one regiment supplied with twenty-four 4.7's, no American-made guns ever reached the American front in France, which only means the Germans knew when to quit.

sunshine."

The people of Belgium are certainly a brave lot. The women and children especially are certainly noteworthy for what they have suffered and gone through. I have seen them brave the dangers of barrages and gun fire, and never in a single instance did they seem to lose their presence of mind. When we boys would come up to them we were certainly greeted with the love of one's mother, and anything available in the eat line was ours, with all those dear people's hearts.

These same women and children have suffered the wrongs and dastardly cowardice of the Germans for four years. The young men who grew up in that time were taken from their homes by the Huns and forced to work at whatever the Germans saw fit to put them, leaving just the women and small children at home to till the soil and struggle along to the best of their ability.

The Huns in their retreat took everything available from them, hogs, horses, cows, etc., leaving them hardly a thing upon which to survive, and our forward mission of stopping such cowardice was certainly a merry welcome to us by freeing those innocent people from the "tin" hand of German militarism.

Well, fellows, all this ill-doing and the wronging of innocent people has been brought to a successful conclusion, and the only thing that now remains is that of restoring the ruins of many beautiful homes and cities and a land that is full of shell holes and trenches. It will take many years of labor to again rebuild them. But the victory is won, and we are glad and proud to have that chance to help right the wrongs of the ignorance of the despised Kaiser and his greedy followers.

The weather here is not very cold, but we seldom see old Sol, and now all I am hankering for is my return home to the land of sunshine and roses.

We have lots to eat, but blackberry pie is at a par. The Y. M. C. A. and K. C. and Red Cross treat us loyally—cigarettes, tobacco, chocolate and such good things as we fellows like. Our mainstay while on the front line was good old corned beef, which was enjoyed immensely when we were hungry, but we had to be hungry to get away with it.

Well, fellows, I have been pretty busy traveling since coming across (walking mostly) around through different sections of France and Belgium, so I am asking you to accept my apology for not writing to you before. So I will close, wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Otto Bissett also joins in wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Yours very truly,

At Tabriz, Persia, 30,000 exiles, victims of Turkish deportations, are destitute and in desperate plight. People are dropping dead of starvation in the streets of Teheran, and babies have been found clinging to the bodies of lifeless mothers. Relief workers report that food and funds are needed imperatively, that thousands are dying daily in all parts of Asia Minor.

President Wilson has issued a proclamation calling upon the people of America to subscribe to the Armenian-Syrian relief fund. The Red Cross has officially approved the campaign. Churches all over the country are helping and now the great body of American people are asked to help relieve the suffering of these Christian people who have nowhere else to turn for help.

Already relief workers who are on the ground are doing their utmost but they are hampered through lack of funds. There must be an immediate response or 4,000,000 people will perish.

The Home-Comers

It is reported that many of our returning soldiers and sailors instead of going back to their homes are entering the large cities to seek employment.

The large cities are preparing to take care of their own returning men, and employers will naturally replace them in their old jobs in preference to engaging non-residents.

Two things complicate the employment question in cities at present. One is that many employers have been forced by the war-time distinction between essential and non-essential industries to lessen their product, and must wait for the indications of returning demand to increase it.

The second consideration is that many women and older men have taken the places of young men, and in many cases their services cannot in fairness be immediately dispensed with.

These conditions will make the city a difficult place at present for the young men from small towns. It will be better for such a young man at present to return to his own home, where he is well known, and take his old job for the time being. He can watch the development of business and make his descent upon the city when conditions appear favorable.

The President's Trip

Nothing could have been better calculated to promote good feeling and agreement between the Allies than President Wilson's trip to Europe at this time.

As long as the war lasted the Allies were obliged to live in amity. When nations are bound together in a life and death struggle against arbitrary power there is no possibility of disagreement. All separate national claims may well be put aside until it is settled whether the nations themselves shall exist.

With the passing of warfare it would be but natural that different policies and separate claims should come to the front among the allied nations.

And who could be as well fitted to arbitrate any differences of opinion among the Allies as the United States, who wants nothing for herself and has no stake in Europe?

And who could represent the United States as well as her President, who months ago laid down the fourteen great principles of peace for the world?

Europe has found President Wilson a gracious gentleman, well fitted to his high embassy. The acquaintance he has made with statesmen of the allied countries will make his presence at the peace board most effective.

America looks to him to protect her interests and to assist in the adoption of a settlement which will mean lasting peace.

The greatest bore to a deceitful woman is the man who can look a hole through her.

Why worry about a general's politics? He must follow his flag no matter whether it flies over a Democratic, Republican or Socialistic dome of Congress; he is bound in exacting duties that do not lend themselves to the forked tongues of personal opinion; he should predominate in nothing excepting, perhaps, an office that's not of one party, one opinion, or one religion—his office of general. And besides, only such geniuses as Richelieu are capable of combining political and military standards on one mast-head—and we cannot but admit that no one man betwixt the coasts of San Francisco and Yonkers has one grain of that particular salt.

Mistakes are the most useless, yet most used, of any form of natural habit. They are something apparently necessary to the common good as mostly by their committance experience steps in at our door, and next time we always have the opportunity to do better than we have ever done heretofore. But after all, try to pass them up by just a mere tip of the hat.

The Kaiser had best wait until that weeping season comes when "April showers bring May flowers" before he passes on, because it is not at all probable that any one else will bring him any.

It was a rather unnecessary stunt for the suffragists to make a bonfire of President Wilson's speeches. They only succeeded in proving that the speeches held "words that burn," and that the rest of us knew long ago.

One of the former Kaiser's principal pleasures has been cut off. His advisers have determined that he must not talk.

President Wilson has now added spaghetti to the variety of national food he is testing.

It is not likely, however, that he will include sausages and sauerkraut in the number.

If it is decided to sink the German fleet, better select a few German submarines to do it. They have had experience in that line.

Don't give your son from abroad either prunes or salmon for his first home meal unless you wish to induce an attack of militarism.

Value is a matter of comparison solely. For instance, a plow is a useful and valuable implement. But if you have neither land nor a horse, a plow means but little to you.

May 1919 bring the world Happiness, Prosperity and Love.

FIRE FIGHTERS' CLUB MEMBERS TO MEET LOCAL DEPARTMENT

Fire Chief Ben H. Truax has arranged a meeting with a delegation from the Daly City branch of the Edvard Ford Club, the State Federation of Municipal Firemen. The meeting will be held in the City Hall on Friday evening.

Battalion Fire Chiefs Spear and Hannon and Captain Gill of San Francisco are expected to be in attendance at the meeting.

ABBE SCOTT BUYS SEDAN.

Abbe Scott has fallen in line with the exponents of the closed car idea and is now the owner of a Chandler sedan. It is a roomy car, of attractive lines.

One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to us o'er and o'er:
Our taxes will be higher now
Than they have been before.

It may be that formerly we were too proud to fight, but certainly now we are proud of our fighting.

We suspect that the formation of the League of Nations is still considerably more than "half a league onward." But the Allies will overtake it some day.

It looks as if President Wilson will have a full hand of kings and queens to show down upon the peace table.

"Senate seeks to stop hasty rail action." We trust it will have nothing to say against speedy rail action.

The Allies will fix the peace terms. Germany's only privilege will be to sign them.

Any of the returning officers will be received with delight except General Unemployment. We trust he will be assigned to visit Germany with the Army of Occupation.

We have all had some excellent courses in French and Belgian geography, and now it looks as if the next course would be Russian geography, to judge from the war maps in the papers.

Everything has its compensations. The Kaiser's ear trouble will perhaps prevent his hearing the news from Germany.

If President Wilson is away much longer it may be necessary to place Congress temporarily in an orphan asylum.

If all these little would-be republics become separate countries the map of Europe will bear a remarkable likeness to a patchwork quilt.

You are doubtless provided with a beautiful new set of New Year's resolutions. It is to be hoped they are guaranteed to stand wear and tear.

The total number of Germans dead in war casualties amounts to about Two Million Men! An utter loss far beyond any money disasters which could befall a nation.

Germany will be a wizard of finance if she can foot the bills for indemnity and reconstruction which will be brought vigorously to her attention.

Germany still keeps her Christmas stocking hanging, and it is still gaping for food.

BUILD NOW

Build now! This is the plan of the Department of Labor to bring the country back to a basis of peace, plenty and happiness.

Deep thought has been given to the plan. Every interest was weighed with regard to its value as a force in putting labor to work, every natural impulse was studied, every fact bearing on the fruitful employment of the resources of the country was taken into account.

And the answer of all was: Build now!

The building industry was stopped by the war. The men and materials used in it were needed by the government for war work. Thus the industry is behind its schedule about two years.

In the building trades alone, when all are employed, there are thirteen international unions of craftsmen with hundreds of thousands of workers engaged in pursuits which depend upon them. These great forces set in motion the whole army of industry.

That means prosperity for all the people.

No other industry can bring about this result so quickly.

The plan of the Labor Department is supported by nearly all of the States and cities of the country. These will direct their efforts toward completing public works postponed from the beginning of the war.

Nearly every city in the country needs new buildings or additions to old ones. Nearly every city has been compelled to defer its paving, its sewer building, its general system of keeping its house in order and in good repair.

As a result of these two years of general wear and tear without attention to upkeep, the labor of millions will be called for and the country will be able to retain its industrial poise of wartime prosperity. It will be able, also, to absorb the soldiers mustered out of the service through the direct effect of building trade activity upon all the other industries.

Modern building operations embrace nearly every function of industrial life, and through this broad scope it affects the general trade of the country. If the building trades are idle, the country is stagnant; if the building trades are busy, the country is prosperous. In view of this patent fact, the course of the country is clear; keep the building trades active and the country prosperous. Labor will benefit by that.

ORDER OF RED MEN KEEP COUNCIL FIRES BURNING

The 213th anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birthday was celebrated throughout the country by the membership of the Improved Order of Red Men. Tippecanoe Tribe, No. 111, is preparing more hearty welcome home meetings to its heroes and demonstrating the way in which the council fires have been kept burning during their absence, and there must be no slackening in our service to the order.

The past experience of newly elected Sachem George Kiessling Sr. more than justifies the unquestioning faith and confidence expressed by the tribe. To his high office the cry of the orphan, the distress of the sick and discouraged, calls forth not only his compassion but his help.

The work of recruiting palefaces is going on well. A dispensation from the Great Council means something doing every Thursday evening.

MOVIE MEN PROTEST AGAINST EXCISE TAX

The following clever letter is part of the motion picture exhibitors' propaganda against the proposed excise tax on tickets to the movies:

To the Editor—Dear Sir: I am out of a job, for reasons that will appear later.

I am not asking for work—I am to have my old job back next week.

I am only explaining how I happen to have time to write to you and to observe certain things.

I have a wife and two children. We're not very flush with money these days, but we have enough to go to the movies now and then.

It costs me 40 cents, plus 4 cents war tax, when we all go. I don't kick about that tax.

But I do kick about the new tax I see they're going to put on the movies—the excise tax that Congress wants to put and which, folks tell me, will raise the price of admission about 1 cent a ticket.

I think that's wrong. It will make it just 4 cents more—the best part of a nickel—to take my family to the movies.

The worst thing about it is that they are putting this only on the movies, while the rich people who pay $2 and $3 for their theatre tickets will not have to pay any more than the regular 10 per cent war tax—plus same as now is paid by me when I go to the movies.

I have just been honorably discharged from the army, and because I served my country I feel I have a right to protest when it is going to pick out my particular amusement—and the amusement of all the soldiers—of a special tax that is not going to be levied on the rich folks.

Why doesn't some newspaper take the part of a man who has only a little to spend on entertainment and who doesn't deserve to be picked out for special taxation?

Do you think it is right?

Very truly yours,

A SOLDIER.

PUBLIC WELFARE WORK

Under this heading The Enterprise will publish weekly articles furnished by the San Mateo Conference of Social Agencies dealing with public welfare work.

THE NEW ERA.

Men have been fighting to make the world a better place to live in. Now people are asking, "When does the new era begin?" They do not know that it has begun; that it began the moment war began.

Public welfare workers before the war had adopted the social definition of sin and righteousness. "Sin is a preventable evil cheerfully accepted. Righteousness, the courageous and skillful co-operation with others to discover and abolish unnecessary evil." When this country entered into war, the conditions under which all men should go to war were judged in the light of this definition. Disease, immorality, should in a large measure be prevented; and the silent misery of those left at home by their bread-earners should be lightened.

National organization made it possible for all to do their bit in this work of prevention, for the duration of the emergency. It has now become obvious that the emergency does not end with the war. The communities to which our soldiers return must be fit places for them to live in. Thus have war aims been broadened until they become plans for society.

The people who are doing the constructive thinking are not waiting to see the future come. They are too busy. The New Era has already begun, and they know it.

A definite intelligence and sentiment has been created concerning our responsibility to childhood. No longer can we sit back, content that our children have nourishing food, education and wholesome recreation. It is your business and mine to point out the children in our community, our county, who, because of ignorant, vicious or unfortunate parents, are suffering with stunted bodies and minds, handicapped for life, to grow to adult life only to become a burden and menace to society. To find these unfortunate children and so change their condition that they also will have a chance to grow to self-sufficient manhood and womanhood, is our immediate duty.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Divine Providence has called from our midst our brother, George E. Britton; be it

Resolved, That South City Lodge, No. 832, hereby extends to Brother Britton's loved ones our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sorrow and bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, under seal of the lodge, be sent to the family of our deceased brother, a copy sent to The Enterprise for publication, and a copy spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

INFLUENZA PATIENTS SHOW TURNS FOR THE BETTER

Friends of Nellie Bortoli will be pleased to hear that Dr. Dolley on Friday reported that there was a change for the better in her condition and rapid recovery is now expected.

Mrs. N. A. Becker, who was suffering with a slight attack of influenza, is also much improved, as is also Ed Kauffmann, who was also suffering with the "flu." Dr. Dolley is in attendance.

Friends of Florence Robertson will be pleased at the news of her decided improvement, following a severe case of pneumonia. Dr. Doak, who is in attendance, has every confidence that her complete recovery will be rapid and without further complications.

Blouse Styles From Many Sources

Whether modeled upon the lines of the original tailored shirtwaist, or drawing inspiration from the easy, flowing lines of Chinese coats, or from any other quarter of the globe, our spring blouses are to be made of dainty and of exquisite materials. The world has grown small and there is not much of it too remote for the inquisitive couriers of merchandising, to call upon; in blouses the styles and materials come from many sources. But women demand sheer and silky fabrics and the taste for fine needlework grows and grows.

The blouse of crepe georgette in a dark color, which is shown in the illustration above, is one of the late models launched upon the sea of styles. It is interesting to study its details and consider the several sources from which they may have sprung. We owe to France the lovely material—georgette crepe—named in honor of Georgette the modiste, whose name it has made a new word in our luggage. But this fabric is a French interpretation of crepe de chine—Chinese crepe. The sleeves are patterned after the kimono sleeve, but modified so that they are more practical for Americans than the original Japanese model. The decoration of beads and silk instantly brings to mind the adornments that American Indians lavished on their garments of wonderfully-dressed skins. The neat rows of small buttons at each side of a short peplum lead the attention back to France, where attention to details of finishing does so much to maintain the precedence of the French as designers.

The picture portrays this blouse so faithfully that very little description is needed. It is a development of the slip-over style, with plain, square neck, that is made with a light underbodice as a foundation. The blouse fastens with tiny snap fasteners on the shoulders and along the underarm at the left. The sleeves are made in three sections, set together with a piping.

This piping, more or less large, is a feature which has proved useful in blouses. Fine pipings finish all the edges in satin shirtwaists and heavier cords are used as a decoration on them. The acid test; which the taste of southern tourists applies to the new models, is about to be met by this interesting bit of apparel.

VILLA MATEO AGAIN IN DIVORCE LIMELIGHT

That J. Paulding Edwards, San Francisco clubman and consulting engineer, who launched an unsuccessful aviation field project at San Carlos, compelled his wife to accompany him to the Villa Mateo roadhouse near Colma in San Mateo county, where he kept her until 3 o'clock in the morning while he lost heavily at gambling games, is one of the charges of cruelty contained in a divorce suit filed in San Francisco Monday by Mrs. Edwards. Before her marriage, Mrs. Edwards was Miss Dollie Tarpey. She is now living at 3633 Jackson street, San Francisco.

This is the second time the gambling resorts of San Mateo county have figured in a divorce suit. A couple of years ago Mrs. George Fuller, in suing her husband for divorce, alleged that he compelled her to sit in the Villa Mateo up to all hours in the night while he gambled with his men friends.

FAILS TO STOP AFTER KNOCKING MAN DOWN

W. C. Corbett, 1548 Ralston avenue, Burlingame, cashier for the Selby Refining Company, was cited to appear Monday in a San Francisco court to answer a charge of running down a man with his automobile and failing to stop to render assistance. Corbett, it is said, ran into a man on the Mission road in San Francisco late Saturday night, and, according to witnesses, did not stop. The number of his car was secured however, and Officer Ed Oliphant of Burlingame looked him up.

The front of Corbett's car was bent and smashed, but Corbett, while admitting the collision had taken place, said he did not drive on until he saw that other passing autoists were taking care of the injured man, who has told the San Francisco police he will not prosecute.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED.

Louis Battyany has filed suit for divorce in Redwood City against Anna Battyany on grounds of extreme cruelty. According to the husband, his spouse called him a "dago," "an ugly old brute," and other names that were none too affectionate, and on December 9 last struck him with her fists. The couple were married at Spokane, March 3, 1915. John D. Willard is attorney for the husband.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLED BY RAPID TRANSIT BUS

An unidentified man, apparently a tramp and about 60 years of age, was struck by a bus of the Rapid Transit Company on the State highway near Atherton last Friday night, and was so badly injured that he died the following morning at the Peninsula Hospital in Palo Alto where he was taken. According to the driver of the bus, the man was walking along the side of the road and stepped directly in the way of the car. His back was broken. The name of J. Flood was found on the man's person.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued in the office of County Clerk Nash during the week:

Frank McDonald, 30, and Ida M. Oppenheim, 33, both of San Francisco; Carroll Crowley, 21, and Alma Donaldson, 25, both of San Francisco.

Emil J. Weber, 24, Gulf Port, Miss., and Ida F. Riester, 22, Corte Madera.

Edward J. Richards, 46, and Madge E. Johnson, 26, both of San Francisco.

Elmer M. O'Hanlon, 22, and Irma J. Bennett, 22, both of San Jose.

Victor Doppee, 25, Redwood City, and Thelma Yetter, 18, San Jose.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR FORMER JUSTICE BOOTH

Many old friends paid their final sad respects to the late W. O. Booth of San Mateo by attending the funeral services at St. Matthew's Catholic Church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, which were followed by burial in St. John's Cemetery. The pallbearers, all old friends of the deceased, were Harry Hatch, Supervisor W. H. Brown, John Gothard, Dennis C. Brown, John H. Flynn and William Dingwell.

Booth, who was 67 years old, died Monday night from heart failure.

OCCULT ART IS OUSTED BY DALY CITY FATHERS

Mystics, spiritualists, fortune-tellers and clairvoyants are taboo in Daly City, or at least they will be in thirty days following the passage of an ordinance by the Daly City Board of Trustees Monday night at its regular session. The anti-palmist ordinance is patterned after that of San Francisco. It was suggested when two alleged mind-readers decamped from San Francisco and took up quarters in the north-end city, only to be expelled by the police there.

M. P. TRAP BOOTLEGGER.

Johnnie Alston, a colored man, who was arrested in Palo Alto on October 22 on the charge of drunkenness, is again in the toils of the law to a more serious extent. He piloted two soldiers to Belmont and bought them a bottle of whisky. The soldiers were military police in disguise, laying a trap for him, and they promptly put him under arrest. He will be held for trial under the federal statute.

BURLINGAME MAN IS NAMED ON ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

Robert W. Dodd of Burlingame, who acted as publicity director for the Burlingame Red Cross drive, has been named as one of the committee on athletic championships by Samuel J. Dallas, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States. The appointments were announced Saturday from Dallas' office in New York.

DALY CITY PIONEER CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Doris Beckmann, 74 years old, for many years a resident of Daly City, having taken up her residence there when the site of the present city was only a cattle ranch, died Wednesday. She had been failing for the past three years. Cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of her death. Dr. A. H. Rankin was her physician.

President Wilson beat Kaiser Bill to Paris, after all.

MEN AT CAMP FREMONT BEING RAPIDLY MUSTERED OUT

Mustering out of soldiers was begun at Camp Fremont on Thursday as a result of telegraphic instructions from Washington. The men that are being demobilized are those not absolutely needed in razing the camp and in guard duty. About 300 men are now stationed at the camp. All men discharged must be supplied with two suits of underclothing and two pairs of socks, which they may keep, the new orders say, and all must be paid off early in the day so that travel can be started before night.

Units of the Eighth Division, which trained at Camp Fremont and which include a large number of California volunteers and drafted men, will be returned to the Coast for demobilization, according to telegraphic word received from the East. The units involved are the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Sixty-third Infantry. The Thirteenth is now stationed at Camp Mills, N. Y., and the other two at Camp Lee, Va.

Through Senator James D. Phelan the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce has been making efforts to have the Twelfth and Thirteenth, particularly, returned to Camp Fremont to be mustered out.

REDWOOD BUSINESS MEN ORGANIZE NEW CLUB

A number of Redwood City business and professional men have fitted up quarters in the second story of the Wahl building, under the name of the Sequoia Club. Only two rooms are used at present; later it is proposed to add a billiard room and possibly a gymnasium.

Easy chairs, soft rugs and pleasing pictures lend a home-like air to the place.

The daily and weekly papers and popular magazines are on file and cards, chess, dominos and other games furnish relaxation. Refreshments of soft drinks and cigars are obtainable and a weekly luncheon is scheduled. The constitution prohibits the handling of any intoxicants and also forbids games of chance for money or stakes.

BOAT WITH REDWOOD BOY ON BOARD TAKES FIRE AT SEA

County Auditor J. J. Shields of Redwood City was considerably alarmed on Sunday last when news reached that city that the steamer Wishka of the United States merchant marine, on which his son, Richard Shields, is an engineer, was on fire off the coast of Panama. The vessel was bound for an eastern port with a cargo of nitrate from Antofagasta, Chile. On Monday word was received that the Wishka had reached Panama safely and had suffered only slight damage.

ANOTHER GOLD STAR IN SAN MATEO CO.'S SERVICE FLAG

Another San Mateo county man has given his life in the war for democracy. The name of Private Pierre Barbe of San Mateo, who was previously reported missing in action in France, appears in Monday's casualty list as killed in action. Mrs. Nettie Meste, his nearest relative, also of San Mateo, has been notified by the War Department.

EX-CO. SURVEYOR NEUMAN IS FATHER OF TWINS

Ex-County Surveyor James V. Neuman and his wife of Redwood City are receiving congratulations on the birth of twin daughters at the Red Cross Hospital in San Mateo. Both the mother and babies are reported as getting along splendidly. The Neumans have two other children, both boys.

LEE ROSS MUSTERED OUT.

Lee T. Ross has secured his honorable discharge from the medical corps of the army and returned to civil life. He will now resume his law practice with his father and brother, George C. and Hall C. Ross.

Kaiser's backers are cutting him von by von.

Pauline Frederick in "Resurrection" Bill at Royal Theatre for Tuesday

PAULINE FREDERICK in Resurrection
A Paramount Picture

Among the motion picture stars of social positions, she refuses this offer, because of her love for a simple peasant whose friendliness and protection on their dreadful march across the Siberian wastes has won her love.

Miss Frederick is capably supported in this unusual photoplay by such sterling screen actors as Robert Elliott, John Sainpolis and Jere Austin. As Prince Nekludov, a dissolute Russian prince who later finds his soul, Mr. Elliott is seen to great advantage; while the portrayal of the role of Simonson, a peasant, by Mr. Sainpolis, is highly artistic. Mr. Austin is well cast and the support generally of a character which adds much to the attractiveness of this great photoplay.

The scenes are thrilling, the action dramatic and rapid, and in all other respects "Resurrection," which will be shown at the Royal Theatre next Tuesday, is a photoplay which, once seen, may be viewed again and again with profit.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

JAP STANDS STARK NAKED IN ROADWAY

CONSTABLE LANDINI DISTURBS NATURE BATH OF INSANE ARTI-CHOKE GROWER.

When the wife of a coastside rancher telephoned on Sunday to Constable Landini that a naked man was standing in the rain on the Halfmoon Bay-Colma boulevard, the constable hurried to the scene and found K. Kido, a Japanese artichoke grower, standing in the middle of the road, hugely enjoying the watery offerings of Jupiter Pluvius.

The man suffered himself to be led away from his nature bath by Constable Landini, who took him to Redwood City.

On Tuesday he appeared before Judge Buck, was adjudged insane and committed to the State Hospital at Agnew.

COUNTY OFFICIALS GET INCREASE IN SALARIES

The new county government bill increasing the salaries of a number of the county officials is now in effect. The officials affected by the bill, together with their present and former salaries, are as follows:

	Present Former
Auditor	$3000 $1800
Treasurer	3000 1800
District Attorney	3000 2400
Supt. of Schools.....	2700 2100
Surveyor	2400 1600
Supervisors, Second and Fifth Twps.....	1500 1200

The present salaries of the Supervisors in the First, Third and Fourth districts are $1500, they having benefited by the new bill when they took office two years ago. In addition to the increase in salary, the new bill allows the District Attorney $60 a month traveling expenses and also a stenographer.

The salaries of the other officials in the courthouse not affected by the bill are: County Clerk, $3000; Sheriff, $4500; Assessor, $4000; Tax Collector, $3500.

The salary of the Justice of the Peace in the First, Second and Third townships is $100 per month, in the Fourth Township, $75 per month, and in the Fifth Township, $40 per month.

The Constable in the First, Second and Third townships gets $90 per month, the Constable in the Fourth Township gets $85 a month and in the Fifth $45 a month.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the late George E. Britton wish to extend to neighbors, friends and the members of the various lodges their sincere thanks for the kindness and help extended during his last illness.

STROUDS TAKE APARTMENTS.

The Stroud family has taken apartments in the Knoth apartments on Maple avenue. Jack Stroud, the son, who is assistant to E. H. Edwards of the Edwards Wire Works, is well known in collegiate athletic circles as a football coach.

CONFLICTING OPINIONS.

The Corporal—How did the examining surgeon come to pass a soft headed thing like you?

The Rookie—Soft headed, eh. The top sergeant said my head was solid bone.

AMONG THE BOYS.

Toy Soldier: What is your favorite expression?

Trumpet: Well I'll be blowed!

FIRST PICTURE OF REVOLT IN BERLIN

This picture is one of the first to show street fighting during the recent revolt in Berlin. Some of the revolutionaries, who included sailors, are putting a belt of cartridges on a machine gun trained on the palace.

MAKE USE OF YOUR ELECTRICAL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

Those who received electrical appliances for Christmas, and those who already have been using them, can do no better to help along the work of readjustment than to continue to make use of these appliances.

They afford a saving in time, labor, expense and materials that will be tremendous when considered along with the activities of the busy times ahead. Every appliance can be used for several different purposes.

The coffee percolator will heat water for shaving in the morning before doing its duty on the breakfast table.

The toaster will also heat the pan for frying bacon and eggs.

The sewing machine motor will also polish the silverware.

These are only a few suggestions—your electrical dealer will give you more, and the habit of using your electrical appliances will grow.
